

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

Two Views On Russia

Washington, May 23. NEITHER the report of Secretary of State Byrnes nor the speeches of Senators Vandenberg and Connally upon the so-called peace conference at Paris, from which they all have recently returned with, despite official optimism, rather a conspicuous failure, after the basic fact (now much too plain to dispute) that the great obstacle to effective international co-operation and future world tranquility is Russia. On the contrary, they make it clearer.

There seems no sense in mincing words about this. Efforts to make it appear that, with equally deplorable aggressive and imperialistic purposes, the British and the Russians are engaged in a fierce struggle for power and we are caught in the middle, serves to confuse but is not founded on fact. Because the British are doing nothing of the kind. The real struggle, as seen by our representatives in best position to know the truth, is between Russia and the United States, the one primarily determined to extend her authority and increase her strength; the other, with no aggressive idea of aggrandizement, primarily concerned in reconstruction and peace. Perhaps we are saps, but no one who has talked with these men can doubt that they are convinced of this fact. And in this struggle the British are with us.

BACK of all the speeches and reports, that is the way those who are best informed feel. They can get help in trying to make international co-operation work from everybody except the Russians. They cannot get co-operation from Russia on anything except on her terms. Russia, as Mr. Hoover recently made plain, is not even co-operating on food. On the contrary, she moved 1,500,000 desperately needed tons of food out of Manchuria and into Siberia, where it is not needed, and can neither be used nor transported. Thus, they are responsible in no small degree for the threatened starvation in Asia. But for Russia, the United Nations machine would be really working smoothly. But for Russia, the peace treaties could be speedily negotiated. But for Russia, a start on world disarmament could be made.

There is no doubt that this is the way most observers and participants in these international conferences see the situation. And there is no doubt that in nearly every foreign office in the world the picture of Russian aggression is held in the closet. Now that he is home, Mr. Byrnes is sure to find that the popular disposition to accept Russia as the regular recalcitrant, the clog on the wheel, the pull-back nation—has greatly increased. It would be strange indeed if it had not. None-the-less, though there is little dispute as to the facts, the two schools of thought concerning our policy toward Russia remain.

ONE believes that loving kindness and sympathetic understanding toward the Russians is the answer. Continued on Page Two

HERE AND THERE IN BUCKS COUNTY TOWNS

Activities of Interest To All in The Various Communities

GLEANED BY SCRIBES

Judge Hiram H. Keller appointed Charles T. Edgerton, Langhorne, as foreman of the grand jury at the opening of the May sessions of Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions for Bucks county. A long list of cases is scheduled for grand jury action.

The first case disposed of before the court was that of William C. Manning, 48, Smithtown, who was fined $200 and costs after pleading guilty to a charge of driving while drunk on Route 611, near Doylestown, on April 27th of this year.

Pronouncing sentence Judge Keller remarked: "We have to go up on our penalties and fines for drunken driving. This offense seems to be on the increase again."

Four fires, three of which are believed to have been caused by the Spring thunder-storm which swept over this section, broke out in Bucks county on Saturday evening.

Assistant County Detective William L. Stackhouse, of Doylestown, said the fires occurred at Peter's Corner, Solebury, near New Hope, and at Langhorne.

Under investigation will be the fire which destroyed the storehouse and garage of Mr. Shetzline, Langhorne, and entails a loss of between $5,000 and $7,000. The storehouse contained farm equipment, such as tractors, lawn mowers and garden tools and machinery.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

John L. Lewis has thus far refused to instruct soft coal miners to go to work for the Government, and, although negotiations are continuing, the industry faces complete paralysis with the end of the truce on Saturday. Reports listed 130,000 miners out of 400,000 as having already left the pits, with the revolt in Pennsylvania spreading to West Virginia and Ohio.

The Senate rejected, 40 to 12, a bill to compel employers to negotiate welfare funds and prepared to vote on measures curbing strikes and unions. Labor unrest is moving toward a crest of 1,000 strike threats a month, Labor Department officials said.

In the fight to extend OPA a Senate committee approved price subsidies until May 1, 1947, in an amount about half way between what the Administration asked and the House voted.

The Iranian question is still with the United Nations Security Council. At its meeting yesterday the Council voted, with Russia absent and Poland casting the only negative ballot, to adjourn to the "near future" when, it was hoped, a more "conclusive" and satisfactory report would be on hand. As Mr. Stettinius implied, a decision will have to be taken some time on whether the Council should go on doing nothing or order an inquiry that could at least disclose if Soviet interference by infiltration was being attempted.

Iran's "civil war" was officially declared over and all a mistake. New negotiations to settle the Azerbaijan issue will be resumed, it was said.

Senator Connally, adding his support to this country's "peace offensive," said the Foreign Ministers' Council had outlived its usefulness and a general peace conference should be called immediately.

Foreign Secretary Bevin told the Commons that all Polish troops would be speedily demobilized and enrolled in a temporary corps under British command until they could be absorbed into civilian life.

The Communist paper Pravda's charge that seven American bombers attacking Chinese Communists had been shot down brought a War Department statement that the only American planes in China were transports and troop carriers.

Chinese Government troops were reported within 30 miles of Changchun in Manchuria. Communists were shelling Tsinan, capital of Shantung.

LAST-MINUTE ATTEMPT MADE TO HALT R. R. STRIKE

President Truman Calls Two R. R. Brotherhoods Into Momentous Caucus

WASHINGTON, May 23.—(INS)—President Truman called two Railroad Brotherhood chiefs into a momentous White House conference today in a last minute attempt to avert a paralyzing national rail strike due to start at 4 p. m. EST.

The Office of Defense Transportation and the Association of American Railroads meanwhile prepared a "coordinated program" to meet emergencies if the Brotherhoods refuse settlement terms or fail to extend the five-day truce.

O.D.T. officials have been holding until the last minute the issuance of an embargo on freight shipments of livestock or perishable goods.

The railroads themselves began notifying the public that passenger trains will not be operated if the Brotherhoods carry out the strike.

Averted by the truce a few minutes before it was originally called last Saturday, a rail strike would affect all but one of the nation's carriers which were seized by the Government five days ago.

Government officials have predicted that a shutdown of the rail-

Predict Some Critical Shortages in Bread

WASHINGTON, May 23.—(INS)—Government officials and bakers predicted today that there will be critical shortages of bread throughout the country within the next three weeks.

The prediction was made as the OPA prepared to order a "slight" increase in the price of white bread.

A bakery association spokesman said that current shortages of bread developing in the U. S. are "just the beginning." He predicted the situation would get increasingly worse unless the Government took steps to provide more grain for American flour mills.

The bakery representative asserted that the shortage of bread would reach its "worst stage about the middle of June."

An Agriculture Department official agreed that flour and bakery products would become "very scarce" in June.

This official said, however, that the Government has planned no action to provide more grain to U. S. flour mills, which rapidly are closing down because of the shortage of wheat created by Government purchases of grain for export.

Both the bakery representatives and government officials expressed fear that black market activities in bread would increase as the shortage develops.

OPA has alerted its investigators for the first time to watch for black market dealings in bread.

WILL MAIL CHECKS FOR TAXES IN TWP.

Federal Public Housing Authority To Pay for Bristol Terrace Projects

TOTAL TO BE $7,537.20

Checks totalling $7,537.20 as payment in lieu of taxes on Bristol Terrace I and Bristol Terrace II war housing projects will be mailed shortly to three taxing bodies in the community, according to word just received by Francis Falvey, Housing Manager, from John A. Kervick, Regional Director of the Federal Public Housing Authority.

Payments include $2,398.20 to Bucks County, $342.59 for Bucks County Institutional District and $4,796.41 to the Bristol Township.

Kervick pointed out that payments in lieu of taxes approximate taxes which would be paid upon such projects if they were not legally exempt from taxation. However, he explained that the law permits appropriate allowances for expenditure made by the Federal Government for streets, utilities or other public services for such projects.

ONE MAN'S OPINION -

By Walter Kiernan
(Distributed by International News Service)

Claude Pepper proposes that sessions of Congress be broadcast as the programs would take the time now occupied by soap operas if it is not as horrible a thought as it first seems.

But will the public stay glued to the radio for "Barkley Faces Life" or "Just Plain Claude."

Still it will be a thrill writing to "U. S. Congress . . . Pan Mail Division." And don't forget . . . requests for photographs should be accompanied by a ballot box top.

Mr. Byrnes replaced "Questions For America" on the air the other night and left us with several questions.

Jimmie indicated that the Foreign Ministers' Conference was not a complete bust . . . He found Russia ready and willing to co-operate at all times on her own inflexible terms.

Anyhow one international problem has been solved for a few days . . . the New York Yankees are not to be raided by the Mexican League until May 28 at the earliest.

Until then, the sign in the dug-out will read "Spanish not spoken here . . . by court order."

I'm watching things for you.

Los Angeles—A man who identified himself in a sealed note to the Los Angeles Examiner as Ralph B. Baumann, 21-year-old discharged Army Air Forces gunner, was arrested early today as a suspect in the multiple slaying which have terrorized Texarkana, Tex.

The man was said to have appeared at the newspaper offices shortly after midnight and said: "I want to sell you some murder information. Give me $5 and let me have an hour's start and I'll put the information in a sealed envelope."

The note read: "On a certain day in March I was in a Texarkana theatre watching a Pathe News picture of war. When a party of persons acted wise and said 'overacting' it kind of got me. I followed them home. I killed them within a period of three days."

SCIENCE AND FISHES

Fishermen who have passed the loveliest part of their lives sitting on creek banks wondering whether a fish is about to take their bait may soon find their idle non-biting moments made a bit more complex. Science in its eager quest for efficiency is exploring the possibilities of locating fish with sonar apparatus, the gadget by which the Navy detected submarines.

The San Francisco Sardine Association has a sonar-equipped boat, which is now chugging about trying to detect sardines.
This, of course, presents a problem, for no one knows just how a sardine sounds, although it has been discovered that squid make low fuzzy noises, shrimp crackle and crabs chirp.

Commercial fishermen may view this development as the beginning of a great new era but one dreads to think of its consequences in the ranks of solitary, one-pole fishers. One of the great pleasures of fishing is sitting, but with sonar one might feel obliged to charge up and down the creek until he found where fish were, thus not wasting his time where they weren't.

An Isaac Walton with headphones and batteries strapped to his bent back might catch fish, but he'd be an alien figure in a familiar scene. Fishing wouldn't be much fun without the uncertainty—and, besides, that sonar might start broadcasting in the middle of a nap.

SCRUB BRUSH EXIT

Although several million veterans who "did it the hard way" may be aggrieved that such scientific advances never occurred during their military lifetimes, the Army is testing an oil for floors which would make scrubbing unnecessary. The primary purpose is presumably one of increased sanitation, but of course one may take the charitable view and say the Army is trying to make the common soldier more comfortable.

Abolition of floor scrubbing would, naturally be a happy step upward in the life of the GI. And while the Army is at it, the soldier undoubtedly would like to recommend to his superiors' attention other causes of camp life vexation.

Such as: Unreasonable sergeants, guard duty which only guards one vast expanse of nothing, mountaineers who play harmonicas after lights out, second lieutenants with delusions of colonelcies, Senators who want to do something for the "boys" in uniform, pup tents in general, healthy guys who bounce out of bed on the first note of reveille feeling "fit as a fiddle" and letting everybody know about it, civilians who refer to those soldiers as "those kids" and official orders which countermand other orders which nobody can remember.

No scrubbing of floor—now they think of it!

Dispute over six men brought a strike of 2,000 rubber workers.
Verily this is becoming a nation of minor minorities.

The Great Game of Politics

We must recognize, it is contended, that they are as eager for peace as we and are merely trying to insure their own safety, which, when their history is considered, is only natural. Further, that they so long have been the victims of suspicion that it is to be expected they should be suspicious themselves; that, actually, they are friendly, simple people who want only a little encouragement and trust to demonstrate their basic nobility and sweetness; that we ought to give them what they want—particularly, the atomic bomb secrets. That is the school most conspicuously represented by Senator Claude Pepper and it reflects also the thought of the Communist Daily Worker and near Communist press in New York.

THE other school holds the view that treachery should be the note of our policy toward Russia; that we should be truculent even when we do her favors such as lending her money; that we should be truculent at all times with Russia; that she does not understand anything else, and anything else she at once interprets as weakness, moves quickly to take advantage. Mostly these Russian leaders are ruthless men, with no standard of moral ethics, additional to the crude methods of Chicago gunmen.

YOU cannot, this school argues, trust men who consistently practice deceit and secrecy even in trivial things and who do not live up to their bargains. Their co-operation in the United Nations is, of course, highly desirable but not at the price they want to exact. Also, yielding is not the way to get more co-operation. It is the way to get less. Between these two schools is Mr. Byrnes with his policy of "firmness and patience." It is interesting to note that, despite his lack of success at Paris, there seems at the moment a greater degree of approval in Congress and in the country of Mr. Byrnes and his policy than before. A majority in both seems strongly of the opinion that, under the circumstances, no one could have done better. And there is little public tolerance of the attempt to depict him as a small man, blind to the larger issues of world affairs who, unhappily, has been concentrating upon the unimportant and irrelevant.

Faith Clarke's SHOPPING TIPS FOR BUDGETEERS

DAMP CELLARS are a problem that "Aguella" will aid in solving. This powdered product is sold at $3.95 a bag. The amount makes a gallon of water-proofing, to be applied to porous interior masonry surfaces. Simply brush it on as you would whitewash. I've heard a rumor that this is the same product that was used to damp-proof military forts. Find "Aguella," and many other unusual household items, in the Snellenburg House Furnishings Dept. (3rd fl.)

PLAY! Get out of doors, play games or engage in sports even though you never do them well. Never be content to be a fan!
The Snellenburg Sporting Goods Dept. is a grand place to secure equipment. The other day I looked over the tennis racquets and found a satisfying group of nylon-string racquets at $5.95 to $12.95—including Spaldings, Baco-crafts, Wright & Ditsons, etc., priced according to make. A good group of nylon-string "Hummer" racquets for beginners, medium weight and suitable for either men or women, priced at $5.95 each.
(3rd fl.)

BRASS LAMPS make handsome wedding presents or gifts to your own home. The Snellenburg Lamp
Dept. has some classic Federal and Colonial designs at most reasonable prices.
The parchment-effect shades are in perfect keeping, so that the lamps completely blend perfectly with almost any type of furnishings.
Prices range from about $5.95 without the shade to $24.95 with shade. Also prices between, with and without shades. (4th fl.)

REJUVENATING the studio couch for summer is a simple matter, with the aid of a ready-tailored slip-cover. The Snellenburg Upholstering Dept. has an interesting group of slip-covers for studio couches, including, of course, the slip for the pillows, at $8.95 to $17.95. At $8.95 there is an effective floral pattern or a choice of grounds—turquoise, gray blue, dark blue, or white. The band-sides are finished with deep boxpleating. Self cording. (4th fl.)

"SKANDIAFLAX"
RUGS are handsome things. Fashioned largely of linen, they are impressive and wear well. Use them in summer or winter. Rich colors—gray, tan, blue, green. Excellent weight, and close Colonial weaving, make for long wear. Good fringed ends. Sizes 9 x 12 $59.95, 12 x 11 $69.95, 12 x 13 $86.25, 12 x 15 $96.75, 12 x 18 $115.00.

Without Painful Backache Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.
The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.
When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.
Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

DEAN WHITEWASHES AMERICAN LEGION

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, May 23

—The Badenhausen team made it seven in a row last evening by whitewashing the American Legion nine, 4-0, on the Bensalem school field.

Paul Dean and "Eddie" Eschanko were the opposing hurler with both doing a fine job. The Badies' players gave Dean better support than that accorded the newly-acquired Legion pitcher.

"Charlie" Kohler and "Tommy"

Burns had two hits each to lead the Legion team at the plate while the four hits allowed the winners were scattered.

"Kenny" Clifton made a beautiful catch of Sak's short fly to right in the fifth inning.
